follow at 3:00 pm

Welcome to OPEN HOUSE 2005!

The Department of Music very much looks forward to welcoming prospective students and their parents to campus Sunday, January 30th. We guarantee first that you'll have a terrific time! We are proud to have a world-class faculty and tremendous facilities to introduce to you! You will have the opportunity to participate in great workshops offered by our faculty and meet us over lunch and tour the facilities in the state-of-the-art Dr. William Riddell Centre. Also included in your registration fee will be tickets to a recital by renowned classical guitarist Daniel Bolshoy.

If you are considering music as a career at all and are interested in learning more about the great education you'll get at the U of R, please join us and share this opportunity to experience the Open House at the U of R Department of Music.

Please note that the cost-covering fee includes lunch, workshops and the Bolshoy concert.

Registration forms and cheques ($25) payable to the Department of Music should be mailed to:
